

Information for boarding at Stepp Stables, or nearby in San Diego County

Alfalfa is the primary feed in this area. Other grass hays are available.

Average price for a bale of alfalfa is $15-$20 per bale.

Bermuda is $13-$16 per bale.

Three-way, orchard, and others are $22-$26 per bale.

Boarding Requirements for STEPP STABLES:

All required paperwork has to be in our office before the horse arrives.

Must Show Proof of ownership and DoD ID. (breed registration papers, bill of sale, etc...)

7 Day Quarantine (arriving from in State)

14 Day Quarantine (arriving from out of State)

Current worming and shot records

Coggins test required for out of State transfers

NO Stallions allowed.

Colts must be gelded by 1 year of age, or within 6 months of arrival to Stepp Stables

Current Boarding Rates:

- Private Stalls with self feed - $190/mo
- 1 feeding /day - $250/mo
- 2 feedings /day - $310/mo
- Lot Pasture - $235/mo

*Feed is 1 flake/feeding. Additional flakes can be purchased separately. Primary feed is Alfalfa hay.
Bermuda can be purchased separately from the Stables office or local feed stores

Facilities:

- 100 Private 24x24 Stalls, Half covered
- Large lot pen
- 3 lighted arenas
- 2 round pens
- Miles of trails
- Complete rodeo arena
- Limited parking for horse trailers

For additional information please call the stable office 760-725-5094, 8 am to 3 pm Pacific Time, Tuesday thru Sunday. Stables Office is Closed Monday, Tuesday and Holidays.

Visit <http://www.mychapsnbreeches.com> (private riding club at the stables)